Madrid, November 25, N. S.

THERE being Advice from Ceuta, that the Army of the Moors was advancing on the 17th Inſtant, to attack that of Spain; we are in hourly Expectation here of a Courier from the Marqueſs de Lede, to learn the Event.

Berlin, December 7, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia did the Lord Whitworth the Honour to dine with him, accompanied by the Prince of Heſſe, the Prince of Anhalt, and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction. M. Brandt the Pruſſian Envoy at Copenhagen, arrived here on the 29th paſt, and is deſigned to be ſent with the ſame Character to Stockholm. For ſeveral Days paſt this Court has been alarmed with Rumours of the Plague's being very violent in Poland, and of its ſpreading towards theſe Frontiers: But Letters of the 23d and 27th paſt, N. S. which are come from Major-General Schwerin, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Envoy at Warſaw, contradict thoſe Reports in a great Meaſure; and he has ſent the Opinion of the King of Poland's Phyſician, who affirms that the Diſtempers which afflict ſeveral Places in that Kingdom, cannot properly be called a Plague, and are not of a contagious Nature. However, the Officers on his Pruſſian Majeſty's Frontiers are ordered to uſe all poſſible Precautions in examining all Perſons and Goods which come from any Parts in the leaſt ſuſpected.

Hague, Dec. 13. On the 11th Inſtant the Marqueſs Beretti Landi received by an Expreſs from his Court an Account, that on the 15th paſt the King his Maſter's Troops attacked and defeated the Moors before Ceuta, forcing them to abandon that Siege: Which Succeſs the ſaid Marqueſs has notified to the States General. The Earl of Cadogan and the Lord Carteret were ſtill at Helvoetſluys Yeſterday; but the Wind having been South-Eaſt ever ſince laſt Night, it is not doubted they are at Sea by this Time. The Marqueſs Pozzobueno the Spaniſh Miniſter, and Count Gazola Miniſter of Parma, went from hence To-Day for Rotterdam, where the Mary Yacht waits to take them on board for England. The three Ships which came lately from Marſeilles and other Ports of the Mediterranean, and were once by Order of the States to have been burnt, but afterwards permitted to perform Quarantain in the Balgh, were in the late violent Storm of Wind caſt away; the Crews of two of them were all drowned, except one Man; all thoſe of the third ſaved themſelves and got aſhore on one of the Iſlands in the Texel. The Merchants concerned in the Cargoes of thoſe three Ships, having petitioned the States of Holland for Leave to have the Goods fiſhed up, thoſe States after mature Deliberation, have iſſued a Placart, forbidding on Pain of Death either the fiſhing up, or receiving any of the ſaid Effects that might be driven on the Coaſt; which Prohibition is alſo to extend to Ships coming from forbidden Ports, that may hereafter ſuffer Shipwreck.

Paris, Dec. 11. Since the regiſtring of the King's Letters Patents upon the Affair of the Pope's Conſtitution, ſeveral Conferences have been held at the Palais Royal between the Miniſters and the Deputies of the Parliament, which it is ſaid has obtained Leave to return to Paris, on a Promiſe that they will regiſter ſeveral Arrêts of the King's touching the Affair of the Finances. On the 9th Inſtant in the Evening a Reſolution was taken to remove Mr. Law from his Employments. He is yet at Liberty; and 'tis ſaid he is about to retire to his Eſtate at Guermande about 10 Leagues from hence. The Cardinal de Rohan and his Party are thought to have prevailed upon the Duke Regent to take this Reſolution, which is looked upon as the Condition of the Reconciliation between the Court and the Parliament. It is ſaid that M. Pelletier des Forts, and de la Houſſaye, will be put at the Head of the Finances; and that M. Bernard and Croſat the younger are to have the Direction of the Bank. Upon the News brought by an Expreſs two Days ago from Rome, that the Pope was ſo ill that his Recovery was deſpaired of, Orders were ſent to the Cardinal de Polignac to return to Paris from his Abbey of Danchin, where he has reſided ever ſince the Baniſhment of the Duke and Dutcheſs of Maine; and the French Cardinals are ordered to be in a readineſs to repair to Rome, in caſe the Pope ſhould dye, except the Cardinal de Noailles. Count Guiſcard, Lieutenant-General, Governour of Sedan, and Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, died ſome Days ago. His Government has ſince been conferred upon Count Medavi, Lieutenant-General. An Indian Prince being arrived here lately, and the Miſſionaries having inſtructed him in the Chriſtian Religion in order to be baptized, the King has declared he will ſtand Godfather.

Whitehall, Dec. 5. Whereas a Report has been ſpread, that the Plague now rages in the Iſle of Man, and that Boats with Perſons from that Iſland have put into ſeveral Places on the Coaſt

Coaſt of Lancaſhire; it is judged proper to give Notice, for the Satisfaction of the Publick, that the Letters which came in this Morning by the Poſt from Liverpool, Wigan, and Lancaſter, do not make Mention of ſuch Boats having put into any of thoſe Places, nor do they Speak of any infectious Diſtemper in the Iſle of Man. As to Lancaſter in particular, from whence the Report is ſaid to have had its Riſe, a Letter from the Poſtmaſter there dated the 2d Inſtant, does not take the leaſt Notice of any of theſe Matters, which he could not have failed to do had there been any real Ground for them.

Whitehall, Dec. 5. This Evening the Earl of Cadogan, and the Lord Carteret, arrived from Holland.

Advertiſements.

WHereas in the firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty King George, I preſented a Method in two printed Papers to the Lords Commiſſioners, for the finding out the Longitude, by a Wheel fixed through the Bottom of a Boat towed by the Ship, or fixed in any Part of the Ship it ſelf, as in the Breaſt, exactly before the Cutter, or in the Stern, ſo far back that it may not incommode the Rudder; which laſt Place I think moſt proper, there being little or no Objection againſt it, ſo placed that Part of the Wheel may be in the Water, which, as the Ship moves, will turn, and turning will meaſure the Way which the Ship runs, as exactly as a Perambulator will do the Roads by Land; which being known, the Longitude and Latitude may be known alſo, by meaſuring with a Pair of Compaſſes ſo many Degrees in the ſame Point, upon a Globe, that the Ship has run; then turning the Compaſſes to the nigheſt Part of the Æquator, being the Meridian they are under, will ſhew the Latitude, and the Diſtance from thence upon the Æquator to the Meridian from whence they departed is the Longitude. From the Wheel there muſt be ſome Clock-work with an Index that ſhall ſhew every Mile or League that the Ship has run. The Wheel muſt be made only of Spoaks, of a triangular Form, with their flat Sides oppoſed to the Water, that the daſhing of the Waves may have little Force upon them. Any Body that can make a Perambulator will make this. It will be neceſſary to meaſure how many Engliſh Miles there are in a Degree, or how many Yards there are in a Geographical Mile by this Inſtrument, before you compute by it. This is to give Notice, that if any Captain or Maſter of a Ship, or other Perſon, Perſon, will undertake to get this Engine made, as above deſcribed, and make the Experiment of it at Sea, ſo as to ſatisfy the Government of the Truth of its Performance, if it takes, the firſt that does it ſhall have the tenth Part of any Premium or Reward that ſhall accrue to me from the Government by Act of Parliament, for finding out the Longitude; and the ſame other Premiums from all foreign Nations that I ſhall obtain thereby. Worceſter, Oct. 25, 1720.
